

Newark Street Community Garden

This map of the garden is accurate as of February 2022. The “Beautification plots” are maintained by volunteers to present a nice aesthetic on the public boundaries of the garden and along parts of the main path. Spigot locations are indicated with orange dots, and underground water lines are shown in yellow.

